

Breakthroughs in Neuroscience Techniques for the Seasoned Leader

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This Leader Development Institute Success Series Seminar© is specifically geared toward seasoned managers and supervisors.

An extremely unique and powerful one-day program where individuals learn the latest in neuroscience breakthroughs, in developing advanced leadership skills and taking them to a higher level.

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT:

- ★ Discover how to 'wake up' the most advanced yet most dormant part of the brain
- ★ How roles can create permanent limitations for ourselves and our teams
- ★ Learn the differences between 'being' a leader vs. 'doing' as a leader
- ★ How to identify our determinants and mitigate the limitations they place on us
- ★ Understand how consequences & transparency impact other's perceptions of us as leaders
- ★ Knowing what we say and how we express ourselves can subtly point to our challenge areas without us even knowing it
- ★ Learn to 'listen deeply' and notice what is 'not' being said while listening for underlying unspoken word

WHAT YOU WILL COVER:

- ★ The four levels of leadership as it relates to brain physiology
- ★ Techniques to lead others to operate from the higher brain
- ★ Discover how limitations we set for ourselves and our team prevent us from rising above them
- ★ How to function at maximum productive levels throughout the day through Contribution Training
- ★ Explore the triangle of disempowerment and how it may be affecting you and your team
- ★ Explore recent scientific findings on how the electromagnetic field we emanate through our thoughts and feelings can be physically detected up to 10 feet away

During this event the participant will discover four levels of leadership as they correlate to brain physiology and learn how to lead and operate from the most advanced part of the brain.

In this workshop, participants will learn how both positive and negative aspects of their teams and projects may be tied back to their own projections, affinities, and subconscious thoughts and behaviors. Participants will explore how to uncover their own hidden potential and remove barriers that otherwise prevent them from leading from their full potential.

This workshop is highly experiential and interactive. Participants will walk away with a greater understanding of themselves and their teams as well specific actions steps to take their leadership to the next level.
