Executive Core Qualifications

This is a live virtual instructor led training event

When: August 27, 2020 (9:00am-4:00pm CDT)

Doors open at 8:30am for sign-in and registration

Are you a new or even experienced executive, SES, C-Suite, GS15, Sr VP, Director, or Deputy Director who values personal and professional development? Are you that transformational leader? Do you bring vision and strategic thinking to the table? What is the culture of your organization? Is it one of high performance, inclusive, continuous improvement? Is the work culture congruent with the organization's core values, or are they out of sync? SESs, GS15's, Agency Directors and other executives are not looked at simply for their "job" skills. Instead they must meet the key objectives which lead to business/agency success and bottom-line improvements.

In this Senior Leader Success Series Seminar, the focus is to bring you to a level of thinking and acting relevant to that of a senior leader. This is an opportunity to engage with an executive coach/trainer focused on YOUR success, along with like-minded peers outside your normal circles. It is a mind-shift from what you've always done...to what you must do to continue to stay in the game. How to rapidly adapt to changing conditions, new information, or unexpected obstacles. You will be able to develop new insights into situations and encourage new ideas and innovations, all while managing your daily activities and navigating the operation of your organization to ensure it is accomplishing the mission.
