

Building the Extraordinary Leadership Team

How would you like to make dramatic progress towards becoming a more cohesive, high-performing Leadership Team? No matter where your organization is in the stages of team development, this dynamic event is designed to bring your team to extraordinary levels. If you aspire to work together more effectively, consider the following:

- ★ What could get accomplished if you were all willing and able to engage in constructive and passionate debate as a means to greater understanding of differing viewpoints?
- ★ How would it benefit your team if everyone could ask for help or provide constructive feedback when needed?
- ★ Are assumptions about the intentions of others interfering with clear and meaningful communication, especially controversial topics that are critical to team success?
- ★ What if decisions could be made more easily and there was follow up to actions, without the issues resurfacing again and again?
- ★ How would your ROI change if you were on target with deadlines and key deliverables?
- ★ What would maximizing communication do for work effectiveness and your bottom line?
