We tend to live such fast-paced lives that we hardly ever seem to have time to stop and catch our breath. We also seem fixated on the past or the future. Though going fast, the past and the future are all important, all we have right now is this moment, the present: Your Time is Now! This seminar is for you, all of us, and attending will provide you information to apply to your personal and professional life right now to ensure you are living every day to its fullest, which in turn will set you up for success into the future. The time to attend or bring this inwardly focused seminar to your conference or organization is now!

WHAT YOU WILL COVER:

- ★ Mirror Moments: Who am I, and am I in alignment with who I truly am?
- ★ Puzzle Pieces: Where do I fit in, and when do I act?
- ★ Crystal Clear: Why do it, and how to achieve it?

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT:

- ★ Who am I? Learn the importance of looking at yourself in the mirror to better understand what makes you tick, your triggers, and what takes you to the top of the “J” Ladder. To enhance your productivity, we will discuss Flexible Focus and how to set yourself up for success every day.
- ★ Am I in alignment with my strengths and true self? You will learn how to find your strengths, what “flow” feels like, and reveal what parts of your life are aligned & not aligned with your true self.
- ★ What is my mission statement? You will create your own personal mission statement to help ensure your energy is always focused on your sense of purpose.
- ★ Where do I fit in? We will discuss the small things each of us should be doing every day to positively influence our customers, colleagues, friends, and communities. Further, we’ll look into being proactive vs. reactive and flexible vs. rigid.
- ★ When should I act? This will help you focus on the here and now by actually getting things done instead of talking about getting things done through a method aimed at ending, or at least minimizing, procrastination.
- ★ Why do it? Discover more about your passions, motivations, and strengths. The key goal is to focus on your strengths more than your shortcomings.
- ★ How to achieve it? Create a plan to achieve that alignment, find your own flow, and set up every day for the success you deserve and can achieve!
